There is much ignorance in the land when it comes to understanding what real Anointed Christianity teaches. First, it must be said that the Anointed teachings are limited by the laws of God and of natural creation. In other words, Anointed ministers do not seek to impart truth to those who are not according to the laws of nature. This limits and sets-up a boundary for the preaching of the Anointed. The reason is because the fundamental teaching of the Anointed is to teach the racial sons of God the way to completeness, in the perfection of that which is perfect, and to the fulfillment of their destiny in the Anointed Aryan Nation of Jesus Christ, and this nation of the Royal Family of God was brought into existence and set-up by the Living God, Master of all, Jesus Christ, or Jesus the Anointed.

To do that, He came preaching the eternal racial truths of the Laws of God and Nature. This was the work that God Himself had purposed from the foundation of the earth, or before there was a world order. And God, being All-knowing, rested on the seventh day of His work, knowing that at the appointed time, He would resume His work, and finish His work. And so Paul says that at the appointed hour of history, God Himself in the person of Anointed Jesus, the Living God of the Aryan Man, came as He had planned and finished His work. And so we have in God's Word the final revelation of God Almighty to Aryan Man, the Christian writings, Paul declaring that the Aryan Jesus came according to the plan of God, and we have the all important teaching that He finished His work.

There are a lot of people who claim to be racially conscious who do not like that teaching, because it destroys their slavery to the Sabbath teaching under the administration of Moses, and so they fight against the Separatist Christian teaching of the finished work of Jesus Christ. But I bear witness of Heaven and of the final revelation of the Word of God, that God doesn't care what they think. That statement may shock some of you. It may surprise some of you to know that God does not care what you think; that is, in the subjective sense of your carnal mind. There are a lot of people who go to God's Word and get absolutely nothing from it, and they continue living like Joudikoi.

The Greek word Joudikoi literally means those who want to live like Jews, and there has always been Judeos and Judaizers, right from the beginning of Christianity itself. There have always been people, yes, even white people, who have been deceived and have attacked the Anointed Living Church of God, and have tried to convert God's people to Judeoism or to living like Jews. The full intent of the meaning of Joudikoi, is one who thinks like a Jew, and if you think like a Jew, you are going to live like a Jew. Thus, when we say Joudikoi, or Judeo, we are talking about people who do not care what the Word of God really says and are more interested in their subjective philosophy of Judeoism than they are in hearing what the Word of God really says. I will give you an illustration: There are some people so into the subjective philosophy of the Jews that although the Apostle Paul clearly states that physical circumcision is not required of Christians or of the white race, they call God a liar, and go about teaching circumcision as a requirement to be an Identity Christian, and that is just one of hundreds of cases where people call God a liar.

Before I released my two books, Forbidden Truth and Hidden Truth, now combined into The Truth Unveiled, it was popular among Judeos of all kinds to be what is called Paul-bashers. Their big argument was that Paul was a false prophet and not a real Christian, and therefore not inspired by the Holy Spirit of God in his writings. They say that Paul was not a racist, and they used this stupid, blasphemous, Jewish lie to turn people against Paul and try to discredit his writings. Now, there are two kinds of Paul-bashers: 1) there is the blatant Jew who wants to get rid of Paul for one reason or another, and 2) there are those who keep Paul but twist everything he said to conform to their Judeoism. What is really stupid about all of this is that one Jew will call another one a Jew, but the truth is, they are both Judeos. That is pretty bad.

We need a little historical background to understand the real issues. King Solomon was a thoroughly evil man who brought a bunch of seedy, mongrelized Jews into his government, and who, for the love of money and national power, made every compromise that a godless man can make. He even made alliances with the ungodly, mongrel king of Tyre, who in the Scripture is a type of Satan. When Solomon finally died, the children of Israel, the Aryan nation that God had chosen as conservators of His truth, became so oppressed by taxation and greed and ungodliness that they went to the king and asked him to lower the tax-burden, but he refused and took advice from the seedy, mongrelized Jews who had infiltrated the government of Israel. The people rebelled, as is their God-given right, and they set up the Northern Kingdom of Israel, which was known as Israel, and over time they began to adopt the religious ways and the gods of some of the other Aryan, patriarchal nations who surrounded them. They did this in spite of the warnings of God, and so they went into idolatry, and this happened because the Jews had stolen their government. The remaining tribe of Judah, some of the Levitical priesthood, and some of the tribe of Benjamin formed the government of Judah Israel. In 721 BC, the northern ten-tribe kingdom of Israel was carried into Assyrian captivity, and thereafter they were dispersed into all the surrounding Aryan nations, but they took with them their monotheism. There were already colonies of Israelites in every civilized, white nation known to the ancient world; they had been sent there as ambassadors of the government when Israel was a great Aryan nation, and when the Israelites were finally free of Assyrian captivity, they migrated to the Aryan nations where they already had relatives, who, in some cases, had been there hundreds of years.

Meantime, the Southern Kingdom of Judah Israel, due to political changes, was taken captive by the Babylonians. Then the Babylonians lost power to the Medes and Persians, and many sincere Judean Israelites went back to Judea to once again establish the nation of Judea-Israel. We read about Esdras, the great-great-grandson of Phineas, who sought to purge the priesthood of mongrelization when it was first established. What is important for you to understand today about this history is that the people of Judah-Israel had conceived a subjective philosophy that was not in accordance with the objective Word of God. There were many schools, or variations, or denominations, of that subjective philosophy in Judah Israel. They were by no means in total agreement with one another about every aspect of their religious philosophy. There were the Pharisees, the Sadducees, and the Talmudists, who expressed the philosophy of the Herods. You will remember earlier that I told you that Solomon was the one that brought non-Israelites and mongrels into the government. When he did that, he changed the definition of nation from race to a geo-political territory, and that false political doctrine is in complete disagreement with the Word of God and the laws of nature, and is the very principle upon which Talmudic Judaism was built.

Where did they get this principle of false patriotism? Solomon got it from the foreigners, the seedy Jews of Accadian blood that he brought into the government. When the Jews, and that is what they were by that time, were taken captive by the Babylonians, this false patriotism, posing as religion, was reinforced while they were in Babylon. The big debate among these Jews at the time of Esdras was whether or not a mongrel could be a member of the priesthood or marry into the Aryan priesthood, and they would not compromise that principle, yet they climbed in bed, politically, with mongrels, and allowed mongrels to be citizens of Judah-Israel as long as they accepted Judaism. In other words, they missed the whole point of the laws of God. They were just like the modern Judeo, so-called Christian churches, especially the Catholics. They were teaching Universalism under the guise of religion. They were perverting the true teachings of the Government of God. They had missed the point that only an Adamic, Aryan, white man can be an Israelite, and Jesus Christ came to restore that great truth.

We have been using the term subjective philosophy, and what we mean by that is exactly what the Bible teaches, which is that there is only one standard of truth, one truth upon which white men can unite. Today, my friends, that truth is the Final Revelation of Almighty God, that is to say, the New Covenant of Jesus Christ. God's Word is an objective standard of truth, and any philosophy, religious, political, or otherwise, that disagrees with or deviates from the true teachings of the Word of God is nothing but subjective, personal reasoning on the part of the individual or group holding the philosophy. God does not tell you to create your own religious philosophy, or your own philosophy of life and nature. God tells you to read and study His thoughts, so that you can be in agreement with Him, and so that you can fulfill your God-appointed destiny within the plan of God.

By destiny, we mean that God inaugurated a plan for the salvation of the true white race before the foundation of the world order. We believe, as the anointed, that God cannot lie, and that His plan is not only true, but it is just. Therefore, the destiny of the biological members of the divine race, that is to say the race of Adam or Aryan man, is for each individual to overcome the wicked one or diabolical mentality or evil spirit, the devil, by recognizing their individual destiny as the sons of the Living God and to become complete, that is, real white people, by overcoming the spiritualism of the wicked one. As separated Christians, we believe that this is only possible by receiving the Spirit of Separation. The Bible teaches that it is impossible for anyone, white Aryan or otherwise, to produce the required fruits of the Spirit of Separation without being literally indwelled by the Spirit of the Anointed or the Mind of the Anointed. Someone may ask, Why is this true? The reason is because there are a lot of people who do not have ears to hear the voice of God, or eyes to see. In other words, they do not have the capacity to be indwelled by the Living Spirit or Mind of God. They do not have the frontal lobe.

People who are off into false, subjective philosophy, whether religious or political, and I want to remind you that there is no difference, fall into two categories. The first category of false teachers and false prophets, those who call God a liar, are those who are mongrelized in body. They are degenerates, and no matter how long you may present the word of God to them, they will never believe it, because they do not have the capacity, and although they may appear to be white, they are not white; because if they were white, they would be the sheep of the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus says that His sheep, those of His fold, hear His voice, and will follow no other, and because those not of His fold do not have the right body container, they do not have the spiritual capacity, and so they get interested in religion or the phenomena of the laws of nature, and they always get filled with demonic spirits, thoughts, words, and concepts of devils, and they do not know the difference, nor will they ever know the difference. They are of their father the devil. They were appointed to this destruction.

The second category includes real white people, real Aryans, who fail to stick to the Word of God as their only standard of truth, and the god of this world, the mentality of Satan and his demons, blind their minds to the truth by telling them lies. Not long ago, I saw a seedy, Los Angeles Jew in a video, and every word that came out of his mouth was a perversion of truth and a lie, and he was pretending to know something about the Living God – they all do, you know. He attacked Christianity with old Jewish lies, tried to link it with Amon of Egypt and sun-worshipping, and this liar told such fantastic lies, that I could not understand how God could let him live. One of the absurd lies that this idiot, this living devil, demon-filled scumbag, told the people, was that when Christians said the word amen they were saying Amon. And he said that the Greek word translated amen in your Bible was in reference to Amon, one of the gods of Egypt. This is nothing but ignorance in the highest order, it is willful ignorance, and is therefore stupidity. When you read in your Bible, Jesus saying, "truly, truly, I say unto you," he is saying amen, amen, and that is the same word that Paul closes some of his letters with, and that Greek word means most assuredly, and we have translated it most assuredly in the Anointed Standard Translation. These Judaized are liars, and they are continuously putting out lies and charging people for it, and the Bible says that they are the twice dead children of Hell.

Not long after that, I spoke at a political meeting, and one of the brothers said something worthy of an amen, and the people were afraid to say amen until I said it. That told me then that the people are living in fear of Jews, in fear of the lies that Jews tell, and the Jews' lies are so numerous and so absurd because they come from a subjective mind, not the objective standard of the Mind of God. So this second condition are those white men who have been seduced by fear in their minds, put there by Satanic, demon-filled Judeos. Someone may say, What is the remedy, Pastor? I tell you that the remedy is to get the Word of God and read it, and more importantly, to believe what God says, not what phony preachers, who are in truth Joudikoi, tell you to believe. If a man contradicts the Word of God on any one point, he is a false prophet. God does not lie, and those who tell lies and make lies have the same destiny as the devil and his messengers.

Salvation is of the Master, the Living God, for not only you as an individual, but for the white race. To disagree with the Word of God by creating some little subjective -ism is to call God a liar, and that is blasphemy, because it maligns His reputation. To disagree with God, is to in effect say that you are smarter than God. To do that is to have a diabolical mind, that is, to have the mind of the devil, because that is exactly what Satan said in his heart when he was Lucifer. He said, "I am smarter than God, I can defeat God's plan," and so we have all kinds of little Satans, little demented, demon-filled, insane people, running around claiming to be smarter than God. They say that they have the answers. They know what is best for the white race. They know how to save the white race; they are all would-be saviors. But God says that if they disagree with Him, that they are liars, and it does not matter how sincere they are, they are sincerely wrong, and they are blind, and they are leading the people into the ditch of destruction. This is true of the established, Judeo churches, whether they call themselves Baptists, Methodists, Lutherans, Catholics – they are all in disagreement with the Word of God.

Judeoism, in whatever form it manifests itself, is always known by the fact that it disagrees with the Word of God. And so the devil tries to suck you into the vacuum of ignorance and sell you a subjective philosophy. The devil doesn't care what subjective philosophy or -ism that you become loyal to, just as long as it is not the Anointed Christianity of the Bible. But there is hope for anyone who is truly of the divine race; they can be overcomers by obeying God and studying God's Word unto God's approval. I want you to know that you who are truly of the Aryan race have a promise, that is, if you will obey God, you shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free of all the Joudikoi lies of the demons of hell. The very Spirit of Truth will come into your heart and mind and teach you all things, not some of it or part of it, but all of it. But in order for this to happen, you have got to come to understand that the precepts recorded in the New Covenant are the final revelation of Aryan God to Aryan man.

One precept or Christian law is that of prove all things. That is as much of an immutable law as Thou shalt have no other gods before me. You must learn to try the spirits, and that involves searching the Scriptures. You must become fruit-inspectors, for it is by their fruits that you shall know them. What is the fruit of a man's mouth? Does he repeat the just judgments and thoughts of God, or does he call God a liar? Do you not know that it is your responsibility to know those whom God has appointed among us? You will never appreciate or be perfected by God's appointed preacher until you eat of the Word of God, that is, the Bread of Life. Faith, that is, the true belief system laid down in the New Covenant, comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God, and how shall they hear without a preacher? Children of Israel, it is from faith to faith. You must be breathed on before you can breathe on others, and if you never breathe the Words of Life on others, then you will be a spiritual abortion.

So let us notice carefully that Jesus did not say that He would set you free from a few things or a couple of things, He said you would know all truth. So the standard is 100%. Anybody that is lifting up a lesser standard has missed the mark. Someone may say, "Well, I am as good a Christian as Pastor Herrell." My friend, you may be a better Christian than Pastor Herrell, but that is not the issue, the issue is are you in 100% agreement with the mind of God? Are His judgments your judgments, are His thoughts your thoughts? Have you been made perfect by bringing every thought into subjection to Him? There are all kinds of Baptists, there are the Fundamentalists and the Southerns and the Free-Wills, and let's not forget the Hard-shells. The reason is because some of the Baptists have held on to some of the original teachings of the Baptists. Missionary Baptists basically teach once saved, always saved no matter what they hell you do. Free-will Baptists teach that a child of God can fall from grace if they become an ungodly backslider. So we see that the Free-will Baptists are closer to the truth of God's Word than some of the others. Yet, while they may be close to the truth, they also teach that the Jews are God's chosen people. How many lies does it take to damn a man? If religious people teach that the Jews are God's chosen people, then they are calling God a liar. The Bible says that God chose the white Aryan Race, not a bunch of mongrel, antichrist Jews.

Now, I do not doubt that there are some good people in most all religious organizations. But that is not the issue. The issue is, What does God's Word really say, What does it really teach? And I will say it again, anybody who calls God a liar on any point has not been made free and has not been perfected by the truth of the Spirit of Truth. The standard is one hundred percent and that is the standard of perfection that must be lifted up. Can you hear the voice of God? "Therefore, you be perfect" (Matt. 5:48 AST). Those who are in a religious organization that is helping to perpetuate a lie are going to be damned. In fact, they are already damned, they just do not know it. They are standing in judgment today. But if you judge yourselves today, God will not have to judge you, future judgment is for the damned, not the living.

So what is the answer? The answer is the power of the Word of God. The answer is to obey God and study unto His approval. The Bible says, "For as many as are led by the Mentality [Spirit], these are sons of God" (Rom. 8:14 AST). Jesus said, "These words which I speak to you are Mentality and are Life" (John 6:63 AST). Be not deceived, that which is perfect has come, and it is the gift of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, the persuasion once and for all delivered. God does not tell you to believe preachers, He tells you to study His Word. But you will never do it as long as you are trying to be your own savior or follow one of the would-be saviors. You must bend the knee to the Lord Jesus Christ, the Anointed of God.

To understand this more clearly, it is necessary for a person to understand what the New Testament teaches regarding the true nature of the Adamic man. The Adamic man is not only unique in his countenance, but he is unique in his spiritual composition or capacity. The true nature of the Adamic man is not taught by the Joudikoi or Judeo, Judaized, or Talmudized Satanists, primarily because they have hidden the meaning of the word nature as it applies to the Adamic man in the revelation of truth of Almighty God. But, the truth is, the Word of God, the Word of Truth, teaches that the Adamic man is unique among all other humanoid forms on the planet Earth because he was created with the capacity to be indwelled by the Separating Spirit of Almighty God. He was created in perfection, and it is from perfection that he fell and it is to perfection that he must return. But the first Adam committed high treason and dishonored his race, and as a result of his treasonous act, the Holy Spirit or Mind of God departed from him because the Spirit of God is so holy or separated from evil that It cannot stay where evil is entertained or housed. But God, being All-knowing, knew that the Adamic man would lose his completeness and perfection, so God formulated a plan for the Adamic man's restoration, preservation and salvation before the Living God set in motion the natural world. It is, therefore, God's will that all Adamic men be returned to their natural creative estate by becoming complete and perfect through the indwelling of the Living God in them. This is God's plan, as taught by the Scripture, for every individual who is truly of the Aryan race. This is what the Word testifies to.

When the Adam lost his true created nature, the evil one or evil mentality or spirit seized that opportunity to infect, stain, and dirty the Adamic mind with lies. In short, the Adamic race became slaves to the spiritualism of the father of all lies, and the record shows that from the beginning the evil mentality began creating all -isms as a means of side-tracking and preventing the Adamic man from fulfilling his true destiny by means of the indwelling perfection, in the plan of God. It is a self-evident truth that no one can come to the truth of the Anointed Word, that is, the Final Revelation of God, the finished work of Jesus Christ, by becoming an expert in philosophical -isms. The -isms of the world are as numerous as the demented minds of Satanic spirited men can invent or rationalize. A person seeking their destiny through the study of and becoming an expert on the -isms of this world, which would include Satanism, Communism, Judaism, patriotism, Christianism, Protestantism, Catholicism, and any other -ism, will never come to the full truth of the Living God, nor will they fulfill their God-ordained destiny to participate in their part of God's Holy War.

Therefore, the Christian writings claim to be directly inspired by the Mind of God. In plain words, the New Covenant of Christ claims to be written by God and to be the thoughts of God and the commandments of God. Moreover, they claim to be the only means whereby men can learn how to think right or to be sane, or not demented, that is, demon-filled.

In effect, any -ism that is in disagreement with the Mind of God, or that arrogantly supposes itself to be smarter than God or stronger than God, is all of the evil mentality of Satan. It does not matter what those in disagreement with the revelation of God call themselves. Counterfeit, phony Christians are Satanists, because they think the thoughts and have the judgments of the evil one, the father of all lies. Some demented, demon-filled, insane people are more honest than others and adopt out-and-out Satanism, that is, worshipping the god of this world, whom the Living God is in opposition with. Satanism can call itself any subjective philosophy, hide under the disguise of any name, but when it is compared and exposed to the pure Word of the Living God, which is the only light of truth, it is manifested to be of the evil mentality of the enemy of the Living God. Now, there are in the world many different spiritual conditions, and the Word of God says that such conditions can only be treated by those whom God has trained and appointed among us for that purpose. Most, if not all, Joudikoi, which means Judeo Christians and others who seek to live and think like Talmudic Jews, are not Spirit-filled or Anointed Christians, and this is proven according to the Christian law of proving all things by comparing their perverted teachings to what the Bible really teaches. If someone professing Christianity does not profess the wisdom of God's laws in nature, but seeks to lift up as a standard evil perversions such as race-mixing or homosexuality or lesbianism or unruliness, such a person is manifest to be nothing more than a spiritual abortion. Not because Pastor Herrell says so, but because the Word of God says so. God says it. The diabolical one, the evil mentality of the Satan, has clearly manifested himself historically in the philosophy of Talmudic Jews and Cabalic Jews. A mongrel mind can only produce mongrel thoughts, and we know that the Spirit of God does not indwell mongrels.

There are many incomplete men in the world who recognize the laws of nature as mandated and ordained by the law of Almighty God. Some of them call themselves Christians, though they are proven to be Judeos or Joudikoi; others call themselves naturalists, pantheists, Odinists; some call themselves racists. Racism is nothing but the recognition of the laws of nature. It does not make a person an Israelite or a Christian. There are Talmudic, beanie-wearing Jews who are adamant racists; in fact, some of the best anti-race-mixing literature was written by Jews and black racists. Some claim patriotism as the basis for fellowship, and as the Christian Separatist Church, we do not discourage people from recognizing the laws of God in nature, in fact, we encourage it. But recognizing the laws of God in nature regarding race, homosexuality, family, or anything else simply means that such men profess to agree with the teachings of Jesus Christ. But that does not make them Christians. God says that it is all or nothing. Jesus said that you are either with Him or against Him. Nor is it a basis for Christian fellowship. Some take the position that the only issue is race, and they usurp God's authority by claiming to have a better plan for the survival of God's race than God.

Those who advocate mixing oil and water are advocating an impossibility, because there are some elements that you cannot mix. Light and darkness are just one example. Such men are not true Separatists, because they are not willing to obey the Living God and walk in His plan of salvation – they do greater harm than they do good. We are not saying that they do not do some good, but that is not the issue. Those who bring the ungodly Jews and mongrels into their fellowship, whether political or under the guise of religion, are in opposition to the plan of God. God says that if you want to be complete, you must produce the fruits of separation. Separation is not just physical, but it is also spiritual. In fact, true separation must have its beginning in the spirit or the mind. It is better to have a few real, true, God-fearing white men than to have 10,000 who are either mongrelized in body or in mind. Why is this so? Because with the few who are truly made white in the completeness of Christ by the Baptism of Fire and the renewing of the mind, you will get more done and be pleasing to God and walk in the plan of God. There are many who agree in the seeking of victory over the Satans of this world, but they will not come to bend the knee in the Spirit of Separation, because their deeds are evil. Men love darkness rather than light, God says, because their deeds are evil. There is something in their life that they do not want to wash out or have cleaned up. They are failures, spiritual abortions, no matter how religious they may pretend to be, and they cannot produce the true fruits of Separation. Yes, it is by their fruits, this great Christian principle, that we know who are the Anointed sons of God, the true Anointed Israel of God, and those who are spiritual abortions. God's true people have eyes to see and ears to hear the voice of their Master, and when they hear it, they will follow no other.

An abortion is a failure, and the Bible teaches that sin is failure. The great sin of the majority of individual Adamic people is their failure to have returned to the Living God and put themselves in His plan of salvation. There is no one in God's plan for salvation for the white race who does not produce the fruits of the Spirit of Separation according to the Word of God. This is not a popular teaching, but it is a truth of the Word of God. Satan always tries to circumvent the preaching of the bending of the knee to King Jesus. There are a lot of Joudikoi who preach the gypsy doctrines, that just because you are born white, you have a place reserved in heaven; that is a lie, that is a Jewish lie, and the same liars that teach such nonsense are also the ones that teach that there is no hell or Lake of Fire where God shall justly punish the living demons and all liars and those who help make a lie. The question is never the faithfulness of God, but is always the faithfulness of men.

Those white men who say that they love their racial brethren and that they fear the living God, let them come forth and produce the fruits of Separation in the communion of the Separated. Let them submit to the order of decency, to be ruled by the Word of God, let them show that God's thoughts and judgments are more important than their own. If they are unwilling to do that, to be ruled by the Word of the Living God, then they are manifested as unruly liars, and their deeds will ultimately result in fighting against the plan of God for the salvation of the white race. So we see, my friends, that it all comes down to what the Word of the Living God actually says, because His Word of Truth is the standard that He rules and reigns by, and anyone in disagreement with His just judgments are maladjusted people.

I want you to know that the one thing that God loves above and beyond His Name or Authority is His Word. There are a lot of people who are seeking to re-erect the middle walls of partition of Judaism and paganism, which our Savior destroyed, by preaching the Talmudic, Jewish doctrine of sacred-nameism. The majority of such people are absolutely worthless to the white race. They think and teach that by spouting off one of the titles of the Everliving God, that they are somehow better believers or Christians than other white men who are equally concerned for the survival of the white race. The entire doctrine of the sacred name was first formulated by Talmudic Jews. Some of the early targums, and we are talking about hundreds of years before Christ, were formulated by very sincere Israelites who listened to the Babylonian Jews and believed that it was important that the so-called name of God be hidden from some of the Alexandrian Jews who had adopted the same Babylonian philosophy, with the exception that they got their Babylonian Satanic philosophy from Alexander the Great. This living devil, Alexander, who was taught by Aristotle who received his philosophy from Babylon, wanted to create a one-world order based upon the Judeo teaching of one god of all, and one race.

Therefore, there were some Israelites in Alexandria, Egypt, as well as in Judea, who adopted the philosophy of Satan, and some of the more sincere Israelites got into the sacred name business in order to differentiate themselves from the devils who were promoting race-mixing. But later, the devils got a hold of these targums, and on it they built the Satanic philosophy of Jewish Talmudism. They also added to it the Satanic spiritualism of Cabalism, and started making the claim that the title of Yahweh was the real name of God. Yet anyone who will study the Bible, even the Jewish Masoretic Text, will see that God had many titles. He was the Mighty El, Eloheim, Adonai, etc. Among the white nations, he was known as Thor, Odin, Zeus, etc. So some of the early Israelites thought that it would be a good idea to distinguish themselves and their God from the Satanic philosophies of Babylon, who wanted to merge all the gods into one by a false philosophy, and so they dishonestly called a title of God that means Master, a sacred name of God. The Jews have turned that fact around, and later by the Talmud, attached their universalism and race-mixing philosophy to the title of Yahweh God. And Yahweh is what the Jews call God. But the German tribes called him Thor, and the Greeks, who did not have religion but rather philosophy, referred to the Almighty God as the unknown or unknowable god.

Christ came as the final revelation of God to make one single nation of all Aryan blood, and Christ knocked down all such walls of partition that the arrogance of men had erected, so that there is no longer the Scynthians having their own god, the Greeks their unknown god, or the Israelites their un-pronounceable god. The Christian Scriptures teach that God manifested himself in Jesus, and that Christianity, in the original writings of the New Covenant, is the final revelation of God to Aryan man, and if you have received any Separatist teaching at all, you know that Christianity is firmly based upon the teachings of Positive Christianity. There is no longer a place, since God has come in His final revelation, in His final revealing of Himself, for the religious arrogance of the subjective mind of arrogant men. We no longer call God Almighty the Mighty El or Allah or Yahweh or Adonia or Thor or Zeus; we call him by His Adamic common name, Jesus the Anointed.

The name Jesus, which was a common Aryan name, popular among the Aryan colony of the Galileans, who were Gauls, this sacred name, Jesus, infuriates the Talmudic Jews. They hate the name Jesus, and the reason is because Jesus has defeated them in their silly mind games, and because it was a common Aryan or white man name, and the seedy mongrel Jew is the true racist, who hates anything white or Aryan and seeks to destroy it. That is exactly why they murdered Jesus Christ. Now there is nothing wrong with calling Almighty God by any of His titles, or even calling Him by a Hebrew word, yasha, which means Savior, or the Latin word salvator, which means Savior, but to go around in arrogance, pretending that you know something that nobody else knows, attaching to such titles phony doctrines that teach people to live like Jews, is to be a slave to Satan. White men who will fulfill their destiny as appointed by God, must speak the truth, and all who will speak the truth will call the Anointed of God by what the Greek says that His name is, and His name is Jesus.

I have never believed that there was anything wrong with referring to our Master as yasha which means Savior. I have always understood that our God speaks all languages, and like most old time believers, I have always understood that the new language that God's people were prophesied to speak was the language of Heaven, and the language of Heaven was the language of Truth. That is the language that the Holy Spirit of Truth speaks, He speaks Truth, and it really doesn't matter whether He speaks Truth in English, German, or Italian. And so we have always been tolerant of folks referring to Jesus as yasha or Emmanuel. As God's chosen race, and under the freedom of the law of freedom in Christ Jesus, we have had the right to do that, because where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. But in recent years, we have had a bunch of Judaizers attach themselves to the Identity movement like a cancer, and their purpose is not to perpetuate the brotherhood in freedom, but to destroy the brotherhood and the unity of Identity by perverting truth, and so it is now time for God's Identity ministers to speak up and get the people back on the appointed, predestined path of Salvation. It is time to have a house-cleaning at the House of God.

Those who have sought to bring in Jewish fables and damnable heresies have now manifest themselves to show that they were never truly Identity Christians. They may have been racially conscious, but they never were Christ-conscious. I have purposely remained silent on the sacred name issue and have been working behind the scenes sending out information and publishing truth, so as not to embarrass those brethren who have been deceived into Jewish fables, and don't think that they have not been told the truth, because they have. So now it is time to let the chips fall where they may.

I am going to tell you what my research shows. When we remember that the Jews hate the name Jesus Christ and have vowed to destroy it, and when we believe them when they tell us of their intentions to corrupt Christianity and use it as their vehicle to bring in their new world order of Jewish antichrist domination, then we have good reason to check the sources and authorities who tell us these things. Therefore, I will share with you what I know at this time.

We know that the Jew, Albert Pike, who delivered the Masons deeper into the control of B'nai B'rith, is the source of the teaching of the so-called ineffable or unpronounceable name. We find these things in Albert Pike's Morals and Dogma, the Bible of the Freemasons, and in the Talmud. We know that his teachings are straight out of the Talmud and writings of the insane rabbis.

Here are some facts that most don't like to talk about regarding the so-called sacred name Yahshua. When the subject of the name being Yehoshua or Yahshua comes up, their only points for it being either, is one, that the New Testament was written in Hebrew or Aramaic, and that it originally used Yahshua or Yehoshua, and was later translated into Greek, which is a blatant lie, and two, that somehow Joshua of the Old Testament represented Jesus, based upon verses that they pulled out of the air and do not say anything even near what they suggest, and certainly do not prove their phony pretensions. Then they go on to state that it is not Yahshua but is Yehoshua, and we are supposed to believe the unproven assumption from point one, and then they seek to prove the correct spelling, assuming that the ignorant goyim have bought their deception. Most of such spurious writing is based upon unproven assumptions that people are supposed to take for granted to be the truth, but these assumptions can be traced down to be the work of Jacob Meyer. The Yahshua doctrine first gained momentum after Jacob Meyer started promoting it and made a translation of the Bible called the Sacred Name Bible about thirty years ago. I am not sure how much you know of the Sacred Name Bible and its originator. Jacob Meyer is a self-confessed Jew. I cannot speak civilly of this scumbag Jew-devil Jacob Meyer or of his evil Masonic helpers, for they have subverted whole houses and done more harm to the Identity and white Christian movement than any other people I know of at this time. They are the root of the evil poison ivy that has choked hundreds if not thousands.

Jacob Meyer is a Bethel, Pennsylvania Jew, a regular attendant to the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith meetings. He promotes Talmudic Jewish teachings and has led the Jewish assault against the Church of Jesus Christ since 1966, the year he started his church, The Assemblies of Yahweh. He is such an idiot that he cannot even spell it right. He is the most Jewish, blatant liar in America today. His insane ramblings prove nothing but that he is a Jew, and he is deceiving thousands with his written lies. He promotes race-mixing marriages openly, and cons blacks into becoming members and "ministers" of his blasphemous church. He is a living Satan who profanes and blasphemes the Christian faith with every stroke of his filthy pen. He is the root cause of Christian Identitites being deceived with a Jewish, Masonic so-called sacred name, an inutterable name, promoted by the Masons and the Jews.

This blasphemous pimp of false religion and foremost representative of the Babylonian whore has conned segments of the racial identity movement into believing blatant lies. There is no proof that the Savior's name was Yahshua, YeHoshua, or any other kind of shua. In fact and in truth, the real proof proves that this is a blatant lie born in the hell of Pennsylvania in 1934, through the perverted and corrupt mind of a godless Jew conman whose fanciful arguments are all based upon godless Jew authorities, while he cleverly avoids the great scholarly heritage of the white race, to promote his antichrist teachings.

Jacob Meyer is a living, breathing, antichrist, working feverishly to destroy the white race and white Christianity. He is the root, while many deceived, unlearned and stupid people have become his branches, and the fruit they produce is blasphemy in the highest order. The Jews have always hated the name of Jesus, but Meyer has deceived Christians into pronouncing unprovable garble so that the poor goyim will not be offensive to the Jew. I call on all godly men who accept Jesus Christ as the Son of the Living God and who love their brethren of the white race to study the facts of white scholarship and history, as well as the Scriptures, and overcome the heady wine and deception of this Jew-inspired con-game to further divide the white Christian nation. The antichrist doctrines and fanciful teachings of the so-called Assemblies of Yahweh are popping up all over this country. He is responsible for much of the sacred name literature that is circulating in so-called Identity circles today. If it is not his actual literature, it is literature that uses him as a source. The only other people who use the name Yahshua are the Jews for Jesus movement, who have, in recent months, taken out large newspaper advertisements, etc., stating that Jesus's true name is Yahshua.

Thus, when we look at some of the things Meyer has to say, and his method for proving the sacred name issue, we immediately find gaping holes in his reasoning. In his Preface to his Sacred Name Bible on page ii, he states that Aramaic was the common language of Jesus's time. This not just partially a lie, it is completely a lie, and those who believe such lies, God says that they will be damned. The truth is that Greek was the common language. Greek had been the common language of the civilized world ever since the conquests of Alexander the Great; this is a fact verifiable by any encyclopedia or book on the subject. Aramaic was only spoken by small sects of ultra-pious Jews in isolated pockets in and around Palestine. However, from this reasoning, Meyer goes on to state that the New Testament was originally written in Aramaic, and was later translated into Greek so as to adapt to common vernaculars. That too is a bald-faced, Jewish lie. It is true that there exists portions of an Aramaic New Testament, but this Aramaic was, in fact, translated by what we might call 3rd or 4th century "Jews for Jesus." The Greek Scriptures were written in the 1st century and Greek was the language they were originally written in. This is an absolute, verifiable fact. The only people anywhere who deny this are Jacob Meyer, his followers, and the willfully deceived people who use him as proof, such as in the book What Is His Name? by John Charles Green, which is put out by the late Eldon Purvis of the so-called New Beginnings. You need to understand that the Masons' money was behind this Purvis, and they wanted to combine Identity with Pentecostalism, which cannot be done. In fact, this guy Purvis was very proud of being a Rhodes Scholar, and prior to getting into Identity, he had "ministered to blacks and had a bigger mailing list." He is now deceased. But you will note in Green's book, What is His Name?, he uses Jacob Meyer as his authority, and a couple of Jews out of New York. Again, this kind of thing simply caters to false piety, and those caught up in false piety render themselves worthless to the warfare of the Spirit of Truth.

I do not know Mr. Green, but I do know that his book is a blasphemous lie that uses Jacob Meyer and Jew-contrived scholarship as his authorities. I urge Mr. Green, if he is still alive, to repent, if indeed he is capable. I suggest he get down on his knees there in North Warren, Pennsylvania, and seek forgiveness with tears, assuming that he is not a Jew himself. These Jew Masonic lackeys created a mutual admiration society and claimed to be Identity, making a good living of their namelist of innocent white patriots, while cleverly interweaving their Masonic, Jewish doctrines into the fabric of Identity.

The Purvises are not the only deceived people to take up the Jew banner of Jacob Meyer, but their influence is still being felt in the deception of white Christian patriots. Far too many of the patriots have been deceived by the Satans in our midst, they have been drawn away from the pure Word of God by the diabolical plotters and deceivers of Pennsylvania. They have trusted and taken the word of people who have called themselves Identity, and in the process they have allowed themselves to be further divided and weakened by a Jew plot of deception. Even now, far too many are willing to compromise the Word of God and history and of true scholarship under the guise of seeking unity and promoting brotherhood. But unity can never be achieved on a foundation of lies, and those who make merchandise of God's people and blaspheme the Scriptures and the doctrines of Jesus Christ are not our brothers. They are the antichrists. Every white patriot who holds sacred the blood and sacrifice of the Lamb of God needs to obey the Scripture and study and prove all things, instead of taking people's word for truth in a pamphlet or a booklet. Men who truly fear the living God need to take the advice of the Apostle Paul and "let God be true and every man a liar" (Rom. 3:4 AST).

We have come to such a place in our nation that if a man speaks up for the truth he is accused of promoting disunity. Defending the Gospel of Jesus Christ is not an act of disunity, but is, in truth, an act of unity. God's people can only be unified on the truth of the Scriptures, not on Jewish fables and twisted imaginations.

While Jesus may have been able to speak Aramaic, just as you or I might be able to speak German or French, there is absolutely no evidence to indicate that this was His native tongue. In fact, all evidence points the other way. Jesus was from Galilee, an area that had been entirely Hellenized by the first century. All of the Apostles were also from locations that had been Hellenized, and they all spoke Greek; in fact, all the Apostles except Judas Iscariot were also from Galilee. They had Greek names and they wrote in Greek, and Jesus was an Aryan name, very popular among the dispersed Israelites. Now the importance of saying that the New Testament was written in Aramaic for Meyer is that this allows him to go on and say that in the supposed original Aramaic scriptures, Jesus was known by Yahshua and that the name Jesus did not come into existence until these scriptures were translated into Latin and Greek. But this once again is a lie told by a man who owns a radio station in the Philippines and preaches to mongrels, the Old Judeo missionary bit. The name Jesus is transliterated for the Greek word Ιεσηους (ieseous) with the i being pronounced like a j and thus being transliterated in this fashion to show the correct pronunciation. The Latin translation of the Scriptures completed by Jerome simply transliterated the Greek word into Latin, coming up with Ieseus, and the early 1611 King James further transliterated this as Iesus, but again the I has always been pronounced as a J because of the fact that it is followed by another vowel. Jesus was a very common name in ancient Hellenistic societies, and especially among the dispersed true Israelites, such as those represented by Philo, for example; in fact, there are several other men in the Bible whose names are given as Jesus. But the Jews, who hate the name Jesus, start movements like Jews for Jesus to promote the name Yahshua and set-up Jews like Meyer to put out information that has absolutely no basis in fact and that is easily proven false by simple inquiries.

Now the sacred namers like Meyer point to the Old Testament Joshua, and through about five verses, determine that Joshua has a direct correlation to Jesus, and so therefore, they erroneously conclude, Jesus's real Hebrew or Aramaic name must be Joshua. The Hebrew given for Yahshua and Joshua is identical and it is just a matter of how the word is transliterated that gives the two different spellings. To try to use the so-called ancient Hebrew is a fallacy, because it had no vowels and so it is possible to prove almost anything by so-called Hebrew, by taking the same consonants and adding different vowels; but that is not a proof of anything. It is for this reason that we have pointed God's people to the Septuagint, which was the only Bible that the Christians, including Jesus Christ, recognized. We should count using the Septuagint as sacred, because this is the example of Jesus and His Apostles. As Christian Separatists, we do not accept Jewish myths or Jewish authority of translation. We do not live in fear of what Jews think. If indeed Joshua of the Old Testament does represent Jesus, then there is no proof that Joshua is actually spelled Joshua. We cannot go by the Masoretic Text, because all of the vowels were added in the Hebrew in 900 AD after a thousand years or more of copying the text, and the Hebrew we have today is no where near the original Hebrew, and so the correct spelling or pronunciation of names that appear in the Masoretic Text is a pointless argument. If we were trying to determine the original spelling and pronunciation of Joshua, then the smartest thing to do would be to look at the Septuagint. In practically every case, the Septuagint translators transliterated the names of Old Testament figures into Greek exactly, and parallel almost identical to the Masoretic Text with a few exceptions. For example, the name Jacob is Jakob in the Septuagint, and the name Israel is Israël in the Septuagint. Of almost every name in the Hebrew, there is an almost exact equivalent in the Septuagint, or at least a very close equivalent.

However, some do not even sound alike, and are totally different, one of which is Joshua. In the Septuagint, the Hebrew Joshua was transliterated as Iesous or Jesus. If in the original Hebrew the name was Joshua, then it would have been possible to transliterate this into Greek, and the Septuagint would today say Joshua and not Jesus. However, this is not the case, and all of the evidence points towards the Hebrew, not the Septuagint, having been corrupted by Edomite Jews. History points to the time after Esdras when the Word of God in the ancient Hebrew language was not maintained. Moreover, if you study the book of Esdras, you find out that they couldn't even speak Hebrew, and over a period of a hundred years or so, the Edomite Jews gained control of the scribal offices and started injecting Edomite or Aramaic thinking in order to justify their corrupted version of Hebrewism and bring in their Babylonian philosophies. Philo, an Israelite in dispersion, wrote volumes in the Greek, the language of the Diaspora, against their evil activities, as did the early Christians of the second century.

The truth is that our ancient Hebrew fathers were more akin to the white Greeks than to the muddy Edomites. For those who read Josephus in detail, they will see that there was a faction of the people who wanted to adopt more of a Grecian culture, and these were well respected priests who advocated establishing Grecian schools or gymnasiums and sought to identify with their white Grecian cousins. Many of the Hebrews, especially the Alexandrians, claimed that the Greeks were descendants of the tribes of Israel, and that Plato derived much of his philosophy from the laws of Israel. The Talmudic Jews dispute these historical facts. But back in Palestine, the Babylonian Edomite Jews enraged the Mediate king through political intrigues, and the king overreacted and burnt a pig at the Temple of Jerusalem. This played right into the hands of the Edomites. My understanding of this period of history is that the Medes were predominantly made up of former Israelites turned pagan and were for the most part racial kinsman. The Edomites now called for a united Judea based upon patriotism and geographical boundary and formed the Zealot party. No longer was nation of people defined by their race, and the Jews have been preaching false patriotism, turning racial brother against racial brother ever since. My friends, I want you to know that this is sowing discord among brothers, which is one of the things that God hates. You see, my friends, if you depart from the truth, you destroy the unity of history and of God's Word. The Jews' tactics are always the same, to destroy the racial unity of true Christianity through propaganda lies. Incidentally, I want to be there when the United States government arrests God for hate crimes.

But getting back to the sacred name, the very idea of a sacred name is shown to be erroneous when we examine those few verses which sacred namers point to, to say that there must be a sacred name. The word for name is onoma and literally means authority. In all of the verses that seem to imply a sacred name, we would do well to substitute the word authority and we get an entirely different picture and we discover that the real issue is authority. In fact, that is how the King James translators understood the English term name, to imply the authority of the king. Think about this: stop in the name of the king. That means stop in the authority of the king. I am arresting you in the name of the king. The issue is authority, not some magical name. The sad fact is that an incredible amount of corruption has taken place, most of it initiated by Jews like Meyer, in the area of biblical criticism. In fact, there does not exist a reliable Hebrew copy of the Old Testament scriptures, and neither is there any other language, like Aramaic, Ethiopic, Armenian, etc., that can be given any credence. I do not say this without being able to prove it. I have studied all of these things, and the truth is the truth. For an accurate translation of the Greek Scriptures, please read The Anointed Standard Translation of the New Testament. For more information regarding biblical criticism, read my book The History of the Bible. My point is, the deception perpetrated by Jews cannot be allowed to destroy true Identity. We do, however, need to have a house cleaning based upon truth. As a Christian Separatist, I am interested in unity and building unity based upon truth, not bullshit, and there is only one way to do that, and that is to tell the truth.

There is no promise of defeating our common enemies unless we stand on the New Covenant as God's final revelation. This is easy to do, you turn in the book and you read it, and you either believe what it says or you don't. The question that most people ask is, What would Jesus go by if we went back to that time and spoke His native language? When we realize that the language of the Hellenistic world was Greek, and that that was the native language of Jesus, then we understand that Jesus was indeed His name. What made Jesus unique was the addition of the title Christos to His name. The title Christos means Anointed or Anointed One, and thus Jesus was the Anointed One, because again remember, Jesus was a common name at those times, much like John or William is today. Every argument put forward by the sacred name subscribers is easily repudiated. The whole idea rests on believing that the New Testament was written in Aramaic. It is contrary to all historical evidence and every man alive in the first century who wrote anything, whether love-letters, deeds or business contracts, including contemporary historians, that the common language of the day was Aramaic. Nothing could be more absurd. This argument is also used by the Jews to say that Yahweh is a sacred name and not just a title.

We know that the only place in history and archeology that backs up the YHVH speculations comes from the Moabite stone, from the writing of a corrupt and mongrelized king. We know that even in the Masoretic Text or so-called Hebrew Old Testament the so-called sacred name is used of men and kings and the evidence more than justifies the idea that it was a title, and we know that the translators of the Septuagint translated it on every occasion as kurios, or Lord or Master, 300 hundred years before Jesus Christ, and we know that the Hebrew they translated from was closer to the Greek than to the Aramaic.

It would have been possible to have transliterated the name Yahveh or Yahshua into Greek, if that was the original name, or if it was even understood to be a name. We know that it is a fact that the Septuagint did not originally have Hebrew tetragrammatons in place of the titles theos and kurios, as is popularly stated by the lying Jews. We know this because of Origen, Philo, Josephus, and the New Testament writers, along with papyri. The New Testament was not originally written with the Hebrew tetragrammaton for the sacred name in place of theos and kurios, because not one text has ever been found like that, and we have the papyri of the time, and the early Church fathers, and in order for this to be true, the original texts would have had to have been changed within a period of ten years, assuming everybody had forgotten about the original texts. It is also highly unlikely that different copyist of our over 1100 Greek texts of the New Testament would have all changed the tetragrammaton and participated in the supposed conspiracy, a conspiracy that we have only the word of Jews to substantiate, and that all of the original texts with the Hebrew tetragrammaton would have been lost. In addition to this, if the New Testament was translated from Hebrew, or if it was written with tetragrammatons, which is the only way they can rationalize in the name Yahshua, then other works, such as Josephus, would have had to have been changed, and early original papyri that have been found from that day would have had to have been changed.

The chances of the Septuagint having used Hebrew words for the sacred name and the New Testament doing the same or even having been written in Hebrew are about the same chances of it having been written in Mandarin Chinese, there is no proof for either. All of the evidence points the other way, and again, the only authority that they quote for this is Jacob Meyer, the Pennsylvania Jew.

If you want to conceal the truth, and you do not want to piss the Jews off, or offend the Jews, then certainly you will want to call Him something besides Jesus. I think that it is a very bad comment on America when ministers who say that they are Christians are afraid to say Jesus in public in a prayer function, because they are afraid of offending demonic Jews, who are the manifest Satans of this world. The phony sacred name doctrine, is nothing but the re-erection of the middle walls of partition that the Jews had erected at the time of Christ.

On the other side of the coin are the Odinists. They too want to resurrect walls of division. But it is all of the same evil mentality that wants to destroy the white race through subjective philosophy and mental arrogance. They want to call God a liar. They want to deny the Christian truth that Jesus Christ is the final revelation of God to Aryan men. As Separatists, we shall not compromise this truth. We have nothing to loose by telling the truth, quite to the contrary, we have everything to gain because we shall fulfill the plan of God, and our God-appointed destiny, and we shall speak for the unification of the Aryan race, and for the final fulfillment of the plan of God.

Anyone not seeking to fulfill his destiny as God has ordained does not really love his racial brethren, but is more in the category of loving himself, or loving the enemy of God, the devil. Another great lie perpetrated by the enemies of God is the Jewish propaganda and illusion of freedom of thought.

Adamic white men do not have freedom of thought. That is not their destiny. They only have freedom of choice to choose either blessing or cursing. The philosophy started by Talmudic Jews, the manifest satans or the free thinkers, is the lie that has corrupted America and reduced the American white man to economical slavery and spiritual slavery to the very devil himself. White women, who in God's law are children, are being offered to Morlock, the Babylonian God, who represents the philosophy of Satan, on our streets every day. Some of these Judeo types talk about abortion, and what evil it is, but they do not realize that the Bible teaches that women are children. They never make that connection. I say again, there is no middle ground. Jesus made this point very clear when He said, "He who is not with Me is against Me" (Matt. 12:30 AST). There is no middle ground. A man is either in agreement with God, or he is opposed to God. A man either thinks the thoughts of God and brings his thoughts into subjection to God, or he thinks the thoughts of the diabolical Satan. There is no neutrality, no Switzerland of thought.

Therefore, the Living God calls all of the divine race to be complete, to be restored, to be renewed in the Mind of Jesus Christ, to think the thoughts of God, to have the judgments of God, to be of one mind, and one purpose, and of one accord. Those unwilling to overcome their -isms will not be complete or ever walk in the destiny that God has ordained for His divine race. They will find themselves in opposition to the Living God, and so today, Holy Ones, Separated Ones, those producing the fruit of separation, I implore you, I beg you as the children of God to obey the Living God and let Him wash your minds as white as snow, and to restore you to your true nature of being bodily indwelled by the Mind of God. My brothers, that is what you were created for, and until you are conceived and born into His Government, ruled by His Word, having your mind washed by the regenerating Word of God, you are not truly God's white man. If you are fortunate enough to be of the Aryan race, then you need to go all the way with God, to be what God wants you to be, and the only way that that is possible is to put God first. Study to show yourself approved unto the Living God. "Earnestly show yourself approved to God, a workman unashamed, cutting straight the Word of Truth" (II Tim. 2:15 AST). For this is the answer to our political and racial dilemmas.

God's plan is the answer for solving our many problems, and to those of Anointed Israel, who are Israel only by race, I beg you to search the Scriptures, and you will see that being an Israelite is not enough, you must be anointed, and I remind you that "it is not the will of your Father in the Heavens that one of these little ones should perish" (Matt. 18:14 AST) but "Who desires all men to be delivered and to come to a full knowledge of truth" (I Tim. 2:4 AST). My brethren, let us walk in the Spirit of Separation. God says, "Be Separate, because I am Separate" (I Pet. 1:16 AST). Be imitators of God, and above all, be the royal family of the divine race of the Most High God. Do not believe that spirit of arrogance of the Satan, who thinks himself to be smarter than God. Submit yourselves to the Living God, and He will make you truly wise. It does not matter how much worldly education you may have had, if you can read the Word of God, or if you can have someone read the Word of God to you, then you are accountable to the Word of God and you must fulfill your destiny or be a failure, a spiritual abortion. Favor and truth has come by Jesus Christ, and He has finished His work. His work and His Word will live and abide forever.

Now many are asking today, What is the basis of true Christian Separatist unity? For the Christian Separatist Church, we stand on the Separatist principle that the New Covenant of the Lord Jesus Christ is the final revelation of Aryan God to Aryan man, and that it is the witness of the Finished Work of Jesus Christ. Therefore, as far as white men are concerned, the first and foremost commandment of the Living God given to them under the Christian administration concerning their personal reconciliation to the Living God is that men seek first the government of God and all His righteousness, that is, right thinking. This is also a commandment with promise, for Almighty God tells each man that if they will obey this God-decreed and God-ordained priority for their life, God tell us that all of the other things will be added unto us. So it is also a promise to our chosen race as a whole. God does not tell men to first seek religious or political affiliations, or even to seek to be religious. God says, "But seek first the government [of God], and His Justice, and all these things will be added to you" (Matt, 6:33 AST). That means wait upon your teaching, and I am not talking about men teachers, I am talking about you being taught by the Holy Spirit of Truth. "The Comforter, the Mentality of Separation, Whom the Father will send in My authority, He will teach you all things and will remind you of all things that I said to you" (John 13:26 AST). There is only one, true Bible teacher, and it is the Spirit of Truth. Men who teach contrary to the New Covenant of the law of Jesus Christ, God in the Flesh, do not have Holy Spirit indwelling in them. If you want to know who has Holy Spirit, get your New Covenant and see if they contradict it.

Those who yield in obedience to this life-giving commandment must do so through the confession of Jesus Christ. For God has decreed that there is no other authority under heaven or earth whereby men may be saved. Obedience to God's command shows the believer the necessity of the Separatist Christian life, wherein God has commanded,

> "And what agreement does a house of God have with idols? For we are a house of the Living God, even as God said, 'I will dwell in them, and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be My people.' 'Because of this, come out from among them, and separate, mark off your boundaries and cast them out of your society, and do not have sexual intercourse with an adulterated mongrel, and I will receive you. And I will be a father to you, and you will be sons and daughters to Me, says the Master Omnipotent'" (II Corinthians 6:16-18 AST).

This holy command of the Word of God has far reaching ramifications, for it not only forbids mongrelization of the body, but also the perpetuation of the mongrelization of mind. God commands His people, "Therefore, you be perfect, even as your Father in the Heavens is perfect" (Matt. 5:48 AST). The perfect example of Jesus the Anointed, is that He was perfect in body and in mind.

Many who see the natural truth of God's laws of nature in forbidding the mongrelization of His original creations through race-mixing fail to understand that God's Word also teaches against the mongrelization of the mind, and that the mongrelized-minded person is as much repulsive to the Living God as those who pervert the laws of nature. Far too many have failed to understand that the first Adam was perfect before his fall from favor, and that the ultimate purpose of the Christ in the days of His visitation was to reconcile the divine race back to God and restore men to the perfection that is only in Christ Jesus. All men are religious in the philosophical sense. The atheist's religion is that he has no God. The Jew Communist and Humanist religion is the belief that man can save himself, and in his own strength can bring about a perfect world. The Judeo believes firmly in a false Christ that does not represent the character of the God of the Bible. All men in one respect or another are religious. But one of the greatest truths of Christianity is that Christ did not come to give men religion, He came that they might have life and have it more abundantly.

Christian Separatism and Anointed Identity Christianity are in truth not religions, for Christian Separatism has always been and still remains a way of life and not a religion. Yet the practice of Pure Christian Separatism in Anointed Christianity does indeed find expression in religious activity. For it is certain that the children of the Most High, while not of this world, continue to walk in mortal bodies. Hence it becomes necessary for us to gain a true understanding of the Biblical basis mandated by our Heavenly Father for religious unity. Religious division and disunity are sinful, and are in truth the result of Satan's work. Among the things that the Eternal hates is discord among brothers.

Those who are responsible for such discord are already judged by the Just God. The Bible tells us very clearly that it is Satan and his children, and the servants of him, who are responsible for creating conflict and division. Yet, Satan's government never creates division in his own house. True Separated Anointed Christianity is rigidly defined in God's Word the Bible. All forms of antichristism are defined as being in opposition to the truth of God's Word. Satan's house or family composes the majority of people of this world, and the twice dead children of hell all intuitively understand that what they are against is true Christianity. Satanism, therefore, is self defining in its opposition against true Christianity. It can appear in any form and be welcomed among the demonic and demented people as long as it is against Christ. It is for this reason that Separatists believe that the Word of the Living God must be adhered to in its total context, not adding anything to it or taking anything from it, for it is the Word of God only that manifests the Satans and those deceived people who are in service to Satan.

The Word of God is replete with scriptures that hold the devil and his slaves responsible for all religious strife and divisions. The Bible is God's Word, and it is the source of all true religious unity. The children of the Most High are to live "on every word proceeding through the mouth of God" (Matt. 4:4 AST). His word is to be "the lamp unto our feet" illuminating the predestined path of salvation as we walk "through the valley in the very shadow of death".

The Bible teaches that without a Biblical basis, there can be no religious unity that is acceptable unto God. For this reason the Father has commanded His children: "Earnestly show yourself approved to God, a workman unashamed, cutting straight the Word of Truth" (II Tim. 2:15 AST). We are told to "let God be true and every man a liar" (Rom. 3:4 AST).

The children of the Most High have been promised the abiding presence, the daily filling and the leadership of the Spirit of Truth each day of salvation to lead us into all truth without fear of error. With these things set forth let us again ask: What is the Bible basis for true Biblical unity? The primitive church of the first century paid great prices with their blood and lives to leave an everlasting record of the acceptable extents and limitations of approved unity. The anointed of the first century were used by our Heavenly Father to set the precedent and establish the principles of the kind of unity that is acceptable to the Everliving God. The anointed Holy Ones today need only study their examples carefully to be able to understand with clear certainty the boundaries of unity that our heavenly Father has decreed. When we look in our Bibles in Acts 2:42, we find this statement: "And they were continuing steadfastly in the teaching of the ambassadors" (AST). The early church based anointed fellowship on the principle of continuing in what the Apostles taught. They had not only received what the Apostles had taught, but they carefully practiced what the Apostle's taught, which is the true test of receivership of the doctrines of the Anointed One.

In accordance with the principle of Christian Separatism found in Joshua 1:7, they were steadfast and they did not "turn from the right hand or unto the left", nor were they "blown about by every wind of doctrine".

In I Corinthians 1:10, the Bible says:

"Now I exhort you, brothers, through the authority of our Master, Jesus Anointed, that you all say the same thing, and have no division among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same judgment" (AST).

"And what things you head from me through many witnesses, these things commit to trustworthy men, who will be competent also to teach others" (II Tim. 2:2 AST).

"And everything, whatever you do in word or in action, do all things in the authority of the Master Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him" (Col. 3:17 AST).

With these principles we have Almighty God's absolute and perfect plan for the Biblical basis of acceptable religious unity. Men may lose faith in it or mock it but it is still God's only remedy and the stated will of the Anointed to a religiously confused and divided brotherhood This Biblical plan will put the denominations, sects and man-made churches out of business, and bring to fruition the Government of the Most High God on earth, and it is for this goal that God's appointed Savior, Jesus Christ, taught us to pray, and to conclude, "Let Your Government come; let Your will be done, as in Heaven, also on the earth" (Matt. 6:10 AST). All of the demented devils in service to Satan and in opposition to the Word of God know God's true plan for bringing about His Government on earth. They also know that the Government of God will do away with their godless government and that the demons of hell and the kingdom of darkness will be annihilated.

It is for this reason that they fight against the Word of God, for they know that the true Word of God, believed in total context, is the power that God Almighty has decreed to bring about His Government. Thus, the demons practice every means of deception in perverting the minds of the divine race, all in an effort to stop and prolong the culmination of the Government of the Sons of the Most High God. The plan is as simple as the Gospel itself. It is the will of God that all men of the divine race teach and practice only what is authorized by His total and final revelation. Paul said by the inspiration of the Spirit that if men would all speak the same thing, that there would be no divisions among brethren. Paul also forbade men to teach or pass on any other doctrine or teaching except the very same thing that men heard he or other apostles teach by divine authority. He congratulated men when they recognized that authority and accepted the message not as the words of men but as it is in truth, the word of God. The Spirit warned that he that rejects, rejects not man, but God. This is because the things that are written are the commandments of the Master. The Bible teaches that man can only do those things for which he has Biblical authority. Everything is to be done in the name of (i.e. by the authority of) the Master Jesus the Anointed." We must have Biblical authority and without it we are transgressing. God charges men not to teach anything which is different from sound gospel teaching or beyond the written word. When men learn this truth and open their hearts to it in discipline of the anointing, and obey God and lift up God's Appointed Savior, Jesus Christ, then all true Sons of God will rally to the Holy Standard of the Captain of Aryan man's salvation, Jesus Christ, and then will exist the kind of unity that our Master commands and desires for God's people.

"In gentleness receive the implanted Word that is able to save your life" (Jac. 1:22 AST).

The Anointed One of Israel declared Himself to be the Way, the Truth and the Life to God, thus the only way to God. Moreover, we are told in the Holy Record very explicitly that any man that tries to come to the Father by any other means other than through the Anointed, he is a thief and a robber or criminal. God knew that there would be many who would fall victim of Talmudic Satanism and would seek to profess a belief in God without bending the knee to the Lord Jesus Christ. God specifically tells us that no one can believe in God in this hour unless they accept the Lord Jesus Christ as their only Savior. Thus, the Scriptures tell us that there is no other name (i.e. authority) under heaven or earth whereby men may be saved, and has explicitly stated that no man can come to the Father except through Him. And it is the ways of life declared in the good news of the Government of the Most High that is the only outline for the predestined path of salvation. So, these things tell us that God has a plan for the fulfillment of your individual destiny, and he has a plan for the fulfillment of the destiny of the divine race.

It should not surprise us that the Devil and his children, the twice dead children of hell, have many ways of misleading mankind. High on the list is pagan spiritualism, which in truth is nothing more than devil worship. It is founded upon the old pagan superstitious nonsense. It is the devil trying to get people to seek knowledge of the dead. God says that His Word is the Living Word of God, and that true knowledge can only be obtained from the living. What, then, is the foremost means by which the devil, "the father of the lie," turns mankind away from God? It is by means of false religion! False religion is worship that is built on falsehoods and that is in conflict with God's Word of Truth, the Bible. It is really that simple. This is one reason why the Bible points out that if a person worships in a way that is not in harmony with God's Word, he is in reality serving the demons, because he is acting in harmony with what they want and in conflict with the will and purpose of God.

Although false religions may appear respectable, we must realize that the devil, the god of this world, is a liar and he presents himself as an angel of light. He is not going to come to you and tell you that he is the devil. He hides behind a front of religious respectability. He operates like the Communist Party, he is not bound to tell the truth. What more subtle way could there be for him to deceive people and get them to serve him than by using a religious front that has an outward appearance of righteousness? That the Devil would mislead people by religion that outwardly claims to serve God is shown in the Bible. In fact, the Christian apostle Paul said that Satan himself keeps transforming himself into an angel of light and that his ministers also keep transforming themselves into ministers of righteousness. Brothers and sisters, if you are going to have Christ in the truth of God's Word, you are going to have to fight for it. You are going to have to wake up and understand that you are in the middle of a war.

So Jesus Christ was not imagining something when he called the Devil "the ruler of this world." There are indeed wicked spirits misleading the majority of the inhabited earth. Keep free from every form of spiritualism and break free from religion that may appear respectable but is really based on falsehood. You cannot hold to spiritualism or any religious falsehood and get eternal life in God's ordained belief system, because it is only the truth that leads to eternal life. Far too many have been pulled off the path of salvation, shot with the fiery dart of the manifest satans, because they left the New Covenant. They may have started out on the path of Salvation, but they stopped taking the New Covenant as their absolute authority for faith and practice. That means that they let down the shield of faith, and they got mortally wounded, spiritually speaking, and robbed of their faith in Christ. Spiritual death is a reality that is taught clearly in the Word of God, and everybody who gets into Jewish fables will eventually wax worse and worse. Compromise leads to death, not only in the spirit world, but also in the physical world. Take a look at your country. I want to quote you the words of a very great man, whose life and work proved him to be anointed by the Spirit of God:

"The greatness of Christianity did not arise from attempts to make compromises with those philosophical opinions of the ancient world which had some resemblance's to its own doctrines, but in the unrelenting and fanatical proclamation and defense of its own teachings."

That man was Adolf Hitler.

Therefore, today, at this hour, in our national and personal struggle, we have good reason to seriously examine our hearts and our personal standing with Almighty God. Why? Because the evidence proves that God will soon destroy the wicked and establish his righteous new system. Are you watching the spread of AIDS? Do you not understand that you are living in a bankrupt country and a world headed for bankruptcy? God is doing that because he loves you, because you are His chosen race, the apple of His eye. So we need to ask: "Am I worshipping God in the way that He approves?" It is not any man, but God, who is the judge of what pleases Him. To get God's viewpoint, to find out what His judgment is, what He thinks, we need to go to the Bible. There He plainly tells us the course to follow if we want to gain eternal life, not only for you as an individual, when your tour of duty is over, but the eternal life of your race on this earth as well. Do you love your children? Do you have natural affections? Do you love your racial brothers and sisters? You must answer. If we take to heart what He says and apply it in our lives, it will result in a marvelous blessing for us, both now and in the ages to come. If we don't and we fail to stand on His Word, we will receive cursing, because the reason we perish is for lack of knowledge.

When we examine what the Bible says on this matter, what do we find? Does it teach that the hundreds of millions of persons who practice religion in so many different ways are all pleasing to God? Does it show that all religion is good? To enable us to know how He views the matter, God had this plain statement recorded in His Word:

> "Enter in through the narrow gate, because wide is the gate and broad is the way leading away into destruction, and many are those entering in through it, because narrow is the gate, and constricted is the way leading away into Life, and few are those finding it" (Matt. 7:13-14 AST).

How clearly those words answer our questions! They show that the majority of people are not worshipping God in a way that pleases Him. Only the few, the little flock, are on the road leading to life.

Probably you find yourself readily agreeing with the fact that much religion is not approved by God. No doubt there are many things done in the name of religion that you do not approve of. For example, if you look around in the churches and observe persons who live immoral lives but who make a pretense at being righteous, you know something is wrong. Modern day churches openly promote race-mixing, they sanction and approve of homosexuals and homosexuality. And when you read in the newspaper that some clergymen are publicly seeking to destroy the divine institution of marriage and lowering the God-ordained Aryan standards of decency and saying that homosexuality and race-mixing is all right under certain conditions, all so that they can add mongrels to their church in order to make more money, then you are well aware that this is not what God says. You may remember that God destroyed Sodom and Gomorra. And why? Because they practiced such things! So you know that God is not going to approve of a religious practice that tells people it is all right to act like that. However, you have no doubt heard people say: "It doesn't matter what you believe, as long as you lead a clean moral life and deal kindly with your neighbors." But is that all there is to worshipping God in an acceptable way? These things are necessary, but God requires more.

Doctrines are also involved. The Bible informs us that the true worshipers will worship the Father with spirit and truth. If our worship is to be acceptable to God, it must be firmly rooted in God's Word of Truth. He doesn't say to worship Him in ritual or in a form and a fashion, He says that true worship is in spirit and in truth. Those who will not adhere to the doctrines of Christ run the risk of blaspheming the doctrines of Christ. Jesus reproves those persons who claimed to serve God but who relied heavily on the traditions of men in preference to God's Word. He applied to them God's own words from Isaiah 29:13, saying: "It is vain that they keep worshipping me, because they teach commands of men as doctrines." Since we do not want our worship to be in vain, it is important for each one of us to examine his religion.

We need to examine, not only what we personally believe, but also what is taught by any religious organization with which we may be associated. Are its teachings in full harmony with God's Word, or are they based on the traditions or imaginations of men? Moreover, do they disagree with the New Covenant of the Final Revelation on any one point? If we are lovers of the truth, which is a synonym for Christian, there is nothing to fear from such an examination. It should be the sincere desire of every one of us to learn what God's will is for us in bringing about His Government, and then to do it.

The mere fact that so-called church members of religious organizations may have the Bible or that it is occasionally read to them from the pulpit does not of itself prove that all the things they are taught are in the Bible. It is good to have a Bible; each and every person should. But we must also know what it says and believe it. If a religion really accepts the Bible as God's Word, it is not going to use certain parts of it and reject other parts. "Every Scripture is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in justice" (II Tim. 3:16 AST). Since this is so, the religion that is approved by God must agree in all its details with the Bible.

The man who wants to please God must be sincere. But sincerity alone does not make one's religion approved in God's eyes. The Apostle Paul was moved by God's spirit to write concerning certain ones in his day:

> "For I testify to them that they have zeal to God, but not according to knowledge. For being ignorant of the justice of God, and seeking to establish their own justification, they did not submit to the justice of God" (Rom. 10:2-3 AST).

It is good to be zealously affected in a cause, but if that zeal is to please God it must be according to accurate knowledge. The Bible says that there is a saving knowledge of truth, an epignosis. On the other hand, there is a knowledge of truth that doesn't save anybody, racially or spiritually. Millions of the mainstream Judeo denominations now preach things that their grandparents would have puked at. They have a faint knowledge of the truth, yet they stop short of being taught by the Spirit of Truth, all truth. They have missed the mark. They let down the standard.

Those that were Judaized in Paul's day, who had all of this zeal, got into Judaizing, and as a result, their sincerity was misdirected. Their problem was that they were looking in the wrong direction for instruction. They held on to the Jewish world order, which had rejected God's Son and so was itself rejected by God. What, then, of the religions that take the name of Christ and profess to accept Him as their Master? Does their preaching in His name guarantee that they meet with God's approval? In view of the Scriptures already considered, perhaps you have concluded that it does not. If so, then on this matter you agree with Jesus Christ, the one whom God has appointed as the heavenly Judge of all things and the Appointed Savior of Aryan man; because He warns us, saying:

> "Not everyone saying to Me, 'Master, Master,' will enter into the Government of the Heavens, but those doing the will of My Father in the Heavens. Many will say to Me in that day, 'Master, Master, did we not prophesy in Your authority, and cast out demons in Your authority, and perform many works of power in Your authority?' And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you! Depart from Me, those working lawlessness!'" (Matt. 7:21-23 AST).

Knowledge of the Bible and of God's will is essential for God's approval. But, as Jesus said, it is the doing of that will that counts. One must have works or fruits of separation that are consistent with what one has learned without hypocrisy. To please God, then, one's religion must be in full harmony with the Bible and be applied in every activity of life.

Jesus said that you could recognize whether a man practices the true religion by his "fruits," that is, the things he does and the "fruits" of his mouth by the things he says. If he fails to teach the true history of the Bible, if he leaves out race, if he teaches that Jesus was a mongrel and that Jesus was a Jew, he does not have Holy Spirit. In the same way, we can recognize a religion by the kind of people it produces. True religion ought to produce better persons — better husbands and fathers, better wives and mothers, dedicated Christian revolutionaries to establishing the divine mandate of the Aryan Race. It should produce honorable men, not liars and thieves. It should produce white men who stand out among others because they have the guts to do what is right, and to speak the righteousness of Christ. Is that not what you would expect of a religion that truly draws one close to God? God looks for these things too, and they determine whether a religion is approved of God or not.

Certainly you do not want to find yourself in the category of those who are refused entry into the Government of God because of failure to do God's will? You need to understand clearly that God's Government is here and now and if you are ever going to enter, you must do it now. Eternal life is a present reality. It will be to your benefit, then, to get well-acquainted with the Bible. Follow the course of those ancient Bereans whom God's Word approves because they were "receiving the Word with all readiness, examining the Scriptures daily if these things are so" (Acts 17:11 AST).

As you examine God's Word, you will learn that your love for God will be put to the test. There may be individuals, perhaps even close friends or relatives, who will not approve of your examining the Scriptures. They may try to discourage you. They may do this in all sincerity, because they do not know the marvelous truths found in the Bible. Perhaps you can help them. In other cases, the opposition may come from persons who have no love for God. If this should occur, remember, having God's approval is far more important than having the approval of men. It is God, not man, who will give you eternal life if you love Him above everyone and everything else and keep His commandments.

Always look to God for His help and guidance. Keep on praying, as did the psalmist: "O God, hear my prayer . . . Teach me to do your will, for you are my Master." If you sincerely want to know and practice the religion that He approves, He will answer your prayer. And He will bring you into association with those who do "worship the Father with spirit and truth." But remember, you must believe God and take Him at His Word and be willing to stand on His Word and defend it.

Let us pray . . .
